

Jeta Deda

Jeta Deda holds a Master of Science in Criminal Law from the Faculty of Law, University of Tirana, and has specialized in Labor Law from the University of Naples Federico II, Italy. Before her appointment as General Director of the Health Care Services Operator in December 2023, she served as the General Director of the National Food Authority from 2021 to 2023.

Jeta has previously worked as the General Director of the Agency for Drafting Special Citizenship Programs at the Ministry of Interior, an Analyst in the Prime Minister's Cabinet, an Assistant to the Prime Minister, and a Specialist (lawyer) in the Department of Communication and Relations with Citizens in the Prime Minister's Office.

She has also worked as an independent consultant for the British strategic consulting company Global Counsel, focusing on national health policies. For some time, she was an external lecturer in "Labor Law" at the Faculty of Law, University of Tirana.

Jeta has a long-standing commitment as a volunteer, collaborator, and board member in civil society, working with various national and international organizations in the fields of human rights, women's rights, the empowerment of women and youth in society, European integration, interfaith dialogue, and freedom of belief. She has been involved with the European Youth Parliament, the Albanian Association of Female Heads of Households, the Institute for Human Rights and Non-Formal Education, the Interfaith Council of Albania, the World Women's Alliance for Family and Life, Religions for Peace, and the Benefit of Albanian Women.

She has participated in various training programs on integrative policies, regional cooperation, transparent and effective justice, and human rights, supported and initiated by the European Union, USAID, European Movement Albania, and others.

Jeta speaks fluent English and Italian and has a good command of German, Spanish, and French.